

Notice the following quotes and then let's look at some questions about the Trinity doctrine.

TRINITY DEFINED

Trinity (Latin: Trinitas, lit. 'triad', from trinus 'threefold')^[1] is the Christian doctrine concerning the nature of God, which defines one God existing in three, coeternal, consubstantial divine persons:^{[2][3]} God the Father, God the Son (Jesus Christ) and God the Holy Spirit, three distinct persons (hypostases) sharing one essence/substance/nature (homoousion).—Wikipedia

"The Father eternal, the Son eternal, the Holy Spirit eternal. The Father is God, the Son is God, and the Holy Spirit is God. And yet, there are not three Gods, but one God"—Athanasian Creed

“No doctrine is more fundamental to the Faith than the Trinity”—Dr Norman L Geisler

“The Trinity is a doctrine where error is especially deadly”—Dr John MacArthur

“A cornerstone belief of the Christian faith, the doctrine of the Trinity . . . What is the doctrine of the Trinity? . . . There is only one God, but in the unity of the Godhead there are three eternal, coequal Persons where each Person is independently conscious and self-directing but never acting independently of one another and always manifesting the same character attributes and the same nature. Where in the Bible is the Trinity taught? . . . It is taught in 25 of the 27 books of the New Testament and in 13 of the 39 books of the Old Testament”—“Does the Book of Isaiah Teach the Trinity?”, Reasons to Believe (RTB) blogsite, by Hugh Ross, July 20, 2020

WHY QUESTION THE TRINITY DOCTRINE?

The statements quoted above give evidence that the Trinity doctrine the primary belief of most Christian groups. If this doctrine is true, then we should surely find some evidence of it throughout the Bible.

“For us there is only one God, the Father” (1 Corinthians 8:6 NASB). There are some important Trinity questions that need to be answered.

If the Trinity doctrine is truly Biblical, as Trinitarians claim, then they should not have any problems with answering simple questions about their doctrine, without any resorting to evasion, or denial.

TRINITY QUESTIONS

Here is the main question:

Are both of the following statements true?—YES, or NO

A. For Christians, there is one God, the Triune God.

B. For Christians, there is one God, the Father.

1. If YES, then please explain how the “one God” of Christians is both a three person being and a one person being.

2. If NO, then please identify which of the two above statements is true.

If Jesus is really “the Almighty”, as they claim, then they should have no trouble answering the following questions:

“the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb”—Revelation 21:22

Who is “the Lord God Almighty” in this verse?

Who is “the Lamb” in this verse?

“Salvation belongs to our God . . . and to the Lamb . . . And all the angels . . . and the elders and the four living creatures . . . worshipped God”—Revelation 7:10-11
LSB

Who is “God” in this verse?

Who is “the Lamb” in this verse?

“The kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord and of his Christ . . . the twenty-four elders . . . worshipped God . . . We give You thanks, O Lord God, the Almighty”—Revelation 11:15-17 LSB

Who is “our Lord” in these verses?

Who is “His Christ” in these verses?

Who is “God” in these verses?

Who is “the Lamb” in these verses?

Who is “the Lord God Almighty” in these verses?

CONCLUSION

If the doctrine of the Trinity is true, Trinitarians should be able to answer these questions Biblically.

Trinitarians are “unable to answer these questions” (Luke 14:6 BSB), without exposing the falsehood of the Trinity doctrine.
